

Frageanhängsel ("question tags") mit to be

Mit Frageanhängseln (oder „question tags“) lässt man sich noch einmal etwas bestätigen, was man gesagt hat. Im Deutschen gibt man sie meistens mit oder?, was? oder ne? wieder.

You're his friend, aren't you?

Du bist sein Freund, oder?

It's 9 o'clock, isn't it?

Es ist doch neun Uhr, oder?

He is lucky, isn't he?

Er hat Glück, was?

Um ein question tag zu bilden, wiederholt man zuerst die Form von to be. Wenn der Hauptsatz positiv ist, wird das question tag verneint. Wenn der Hauptsatz verneint ist, ist das question tag positiv – also immer genau herumgedreht:

We are nice, aren't we?

Wir sind nett, oder?

We aren't nice, are we?

Wir sind nicht nett, oder?

Danach kommt ein Pronomen – also I, you, he, she, it, we oder they. Das Subjekt ist im question tag dasselbe wie im Hauptsatz. Wenn dort also schon ein Pronomen das Subjekt ist, musst du es nur noch einmal wiederholen:

You are new here, aren't you?*

Du bist neu hier, oder?

He isn't clever, is he?*

Er ist nicht klug, oder?

Wenn das Subjekt aber ein Substantiv ist oder enthält, musst du es im question tag durch ein passendes Pronomen ersetzen.

You and Sam are Dutch, aren't you?*

Du und Sam seid Holländer, oder seid ihr es nicht?

Sally is nice, isn't she?*

Sally ist nett, oder ist sie es nicht?

Robert is nice, isn't he?*

... oder ist er es nicht?

The table is new, isn't it?*

... oder ist er es nicht?

Bob and I are brothers, aren't we?*

... oder sind wir es nicht?

The dogs are hungry, aren't they?*

... oder sind sie es nicht?

EXERCISE 1 Verbinde die Fragen mit den richtigen Kurzantworten.

Miss Smith is nice,		is he?
I'm not wrong,		are they?
Mr Parker isn't a teacher,		isn't she?
You aren't new here,		aren't you?
They are at home,		am I?
Tim and Bob aren't at school,		are you?
You are ten years old,		aren't they?

EXERCISE 2 Schreibe Kurzantworten.

a) Miss Schafer isn't from Manchester, _____?

b) You aren't from Chester, _____?

- c) Sam is a boy, _____?
- d) Lucy and Sally are your sisters, _____?
- e) I'm new here, _____?
- f) We aren't too late, _____?
- g) They are in the house, _____?
- h) The bird is in its cage, _____?
- i) We are very clever, _____?
- j) The dogs are in the garden, _____?
- k) She's not in your class, _____?
- l) I'm your friend, _____?
- m) Berlin isn't in France, _____?
- n) You are 13 years old, _____?
- o) These houses are old, _____?
- p) The boys are from Germany, _____?
- q) Nick and his brothers aren't stupid, _____?
- r) The little bird is cute, _____?
- s) Your parents are very nice, _____?
- t) Bob and I are friends, _____?
- u) This car isn't too small, _____?
- v) We're not too young, _____?
- w) This chair is old, _____?
- x) My dog Toby is clever, _____?
- y) The dog and the cat are friends, _____?
- z) I'm not you, _____?

EXERCISE 3 Übersetze die Sätze ins Englische.

a) Lisa ist nett, oder?
b) Wir sind aus Berlin, oder?
c) Du bist nicht Tom, oder?
d) Ihr seid Engländer, oder?
e) Deine Eltern sind nicht von hier, oder?
f) Mama ist nicht im Garten, oder?
g) Bob ist kein Hund, oder?
h) Du und Sally sind keine Schwestern, oder?

Lösungen

EXERCISE 1

- Miss Smith is nice, isn't she?
I'm not wrong, am I?
Mr. Parker isn't a teacher, is he?
You aren't new here, are you?
They are at home, aren't they?
Tim and Bob aren't at school, are they?
You are ten years old, aren't you?

EXERCISE 2 Schreibe Kurzantworten.

- a) Miss Schafer isn't from Manchester, is she?
b) You aren't from Chester, are you?
c) Sam is a boy, isn't he?
d) Lucy and Sally are your sisters, aren't they?
e) I'm new here, am I not?
f) We aren't too late, are we?
g) They are in the house, aren't they?
h) The bird is in its cage, isn't it?
i) We are very clever, aren't we?
j) The dogs are in the garden, aren't they?
k) She's not in your class, is she?
l) I'm your friend, am I not?
m) Berlin isn't in France, is it?
n) You are 13 years old, aren't you?
o) These houses are old, aren't they?
p) The boys are from Germany, aren't they?
q) Nick and his brothers aren't stupid, are they?
r) The little bird is cute, isn't it?
s) Your parents are very nice, aren't they?
t) Bob and I are friends, aren't we?
u) This car isn't too small, is it?
v) We're not too young, are we?
w) This chair is old, isn't it?
x) My dog Toby is clever, isn't he?
y) The dog and the cat are friends, aren't they?
z) I'm not you, am I?

EXERCISE 3 a) Lisa is nice, isn't she?

- b) We're from Berlin, aren't we?
c) You aren't Tom, are you?
d) You are English, aren't you?
e) Your parents aren't from here, are they?
f) Mum isn't in the garden, is she?
g) Bob isn't a dog, is he?
h) You and Sally aren't sisters, are you?